IN AN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT
SATURDAY NIGHT.

3 ESCAPE UNINJURED

Collision Occurs East of City Near Wabash Viaduct When Coupe Runs
Into Car Parked On Road.

Three men and one woman were badly bruised and seriously cut by broken glass in a rear-on automobile accident about 9 o'clock Saturday night on the road east of the city connecting with first street, immediately east of the Wabash Railroad viaduct.

The four persons that were injured are:

Charles A. Wilson, Sheridan.
Mrs. W. A. Palmer, Sheridan.
Reuben Flannigan, Caywood.
O. R. Leader, Caywood.

The Ford touring and Ford coupe, the automobiles in the accident, were demolished to the extent that the rear axle and differential of the Ford touring were pushed up and the back of the body badly dented; the front axle, one front wheel, radiator and windshield of the Ford coupe damaged to the extent of having to be replaced.

It was reported to the attending physician by the two in the Ford coupe, Reuben Flannigan and O. R. Leader, who are about 25 years of age, that the Ford touring car, which was parked in the road and the driver of the coupe was unable to see it because no tail light was showing and the lights on the coupe were dimmed somewhat by mud splattered on the lens.

It is understood that the party in the Ford touring car, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wilson and little girl, all of near Guilford, were eating lunch in the car at the time the collision occurred.

Flannigan's face was severely disfigured by flying glass imbedded in the flesh and also sustained a dislocated finger. He will probably have permanent scars on his face from the injuries. O. R. Leader, who was also in the Ford coupe, sustained a deep gash in one knee, also caused by glass. Mrs. Palmer was bruised considerably about her body and cut with glass and Charles A. Wilson was the other member to suffer from broken glass.

Mr. Palmer, Mrs. Wilson and her daughter escaped any serious bruises or injuries. The injured persons were brought to the city immediately following the accident and their wounds dressed and the two Fords hauled in for extensive repairs.

COUNCIL ACCEPTS BID HUGH DEVLIN

FOR NEW SEWERS ON LINCOLN AND MULBERRY STS.

FIVE CONCERNS B/D

Price of Mr. Devlin of St. Joseph Is 60 Cents for 6 Inch and $1.03
For 8 Inch Pipe Per Foot.

Hugh Devlin, 308½ Felix street, St. Joseph, was the successful bidder for the 1,300 feet of six inch and 786 feet of eight inch vitrified sewer pipe that the City Council has ordered on Lincoln and Mulberry street, north of Lincoln street. Mr. Devlin's bid was the lowest out of five concerns bidding for the contract. The bids were opened by the City Council at a special meeting at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The price that Devlin made to the city was 60 cents per lineal foot for the six inch sewer pipe, and $1.03 for the eight inch sewer pipe. James Smith of Maryville was the next lowest bidder, his prices being 80 cents for the six inch sewer pipe and $1.12 for the eight inch sewer pipe.

The price of 60 cents for the six inch and $1.03 for the eight inch sewer pipe includes the material, cost of doing the work and all expense, and fully completed by the contractor, except that the city will put in the manholes. The contract will specify that the sewers are ready for use when the contractor turns the completed work over to the city.

The Cook & O'Brien Construction Co., of Kansas City, which has the contract for all the paving that has been let by the City Council this year, also put in a bid. The prices quoted by the Cook & O'Brien Construction Co. were 80 cents per lineal foot for the six inch sewer and $1.25 per lineal foot for the eight inch sewer pipe. The six inch sewer pipe will be put in Lincoln street and the eight inch sewer pipe will be put in on Mulberry street, north of Lincoln street.

The bid made by Mr. Devlin of St. Joseph was below the estimate that had been made by the city engineer.

Mayor W. O. Garrett said this afternoon that the successful bidder expected to start work on the new sewers next Monday morning if the materials could be shipped up here by that time.

JOHN W. DAVIS IS OUTSTANDING MAN

SAYS GEORGE R. ELLISON, ON RETURN.

THOROUGHLY SATISFIED

Davis and Bryan Make Excellent
Combination and Will Appeal
To All Sections, He Says.

Tired but happy, hopeful but optimistic, George Robb Ellison, Maryville attorney and delegate to the Democratic national convention at New York, returned home last evening after being absent for what he says seems like several years.

Mr. Ellison is thoroughly satisfied with the nominations of the convention. He said today that John W. Davis was undoubtedly the most outstanding in ability and availability of any of the candidates for the nomination.

"Every man in the convention agreed that Davis was the most capable of the lot," Mr. Ellison said this morning, "but there was always the question of his legal connections. However, it was finally agreed that his private business in no way would interfere with his candidacy as it was above reproach in every particular."

Mr. Ellison said that in the Missouri delegation there were about twelve "last-ditch" McAdoo men, twelve "last-ditch" anti-McAdoo men, and the remainder believed that neither McAdoo nor Smith could be nominated and were willing to go to any first-class candidate who could show strength.

It was decided that the vice-presidential candidate should come from the West, Mr. Ellison continued. Beyond doubt, Walsh could have received the nomination ten minutes after Davis had been chosen as the presidential nominee, if the Montana Senator would have accepted. He was a parliamentarian of the highest type, Mr. Ellison continued, and his decisions were always fair and unquestioned in every instance.

After Walsh's refusal, the leaders began looking over the timber from the West and finally decided on Bryan of Nebraska, because of his location, his ability and his brother. For William Jennings still yields a big influence in a Democratic convention, Mr. Ellison said, although many doubted the advisability of his naming his own brother as one of the "eligibles" on his "white list" for the presidential nomination.

Mr. Ellison said that he had received a number of telegrams from Nodaway County friends while he was in New York. Some good Samaritans from Maryville telegraphed him a dollar with the instructions to "stay on and on; you're doing fine," but Mr. Ellison said that either the telegraph agent kept the dollar or it was given to Tex Rickard because he did not receive it. He said that he also received a telegram requesting a plank in the platform prohibiting Sunday golf but this measure lost after a bitter debate on the floor of the convention.

Mr. Ellison said that although all the delegates were treated well in New York it would be a long, long time before the American metropolis will ever get another political convention. The galleries were exceedingly bitter and unfair to every candidate except Smith, he said. The New York governor is the idol of that city, Mr. Ellison continued, because he came up from the ranks of a penniless boy on the streets, selling newspapers for a living.

A compromise candidate was the only way out, he said, and John W. Davis stood out as a brilliant beacon light in the darkness. Then with a western man to balance the ticket, an excellent combination was made which should appeal to every section of the country.

"It's an excellent ticket; a wonderful one," Mr. Ellison continued, "and John W. Davis will grow rapidly in popularity in the West for he is such an outstanding figure in America today."

Battles In Progress At Sao Paulo
And Santos—Government Minimizes Situation—Rushing Troops

Buenos Aires, July 14.—More than 3,000 persons have been killed in the fighting between federal troops and revolutionists at Sao Paulo and Santos, Brazil, according to dispatches reaching here today from the scene of battle.

The Brazilian government has put a strict censorship on news from the affected areas and such reports as have gotten through to Buenos Aires have been widely conflicting. Today's dispatches said battles were in progress at both Sao Paulo and Santos and that 600 had been killed at Santos and 3,000 at Sao Paulo.

Official communications from Rio de Janeiro minimize the situation and declares the government strategy will be to besiege the rebels and starve them out, without bombarding the city, which it is decided to save from the damage.

The government, according to all advices is rushing troops to Sao Paulo and is expected to be in command of the situation in a short time.

DR. D. J. THOMAS MAKING RECORDS

PLAYING ACCEPTED BY DUO
ART COMPANY.

SIX MORE IN THE FALL

Has Distinction of Being Only Missourian Other Than Rudolph Gantz To Make Records.

Dr. D. J. Thomas, who for seven years organist at the Christian church, has stepped into the ranks alongside of Paderewski, Bauer, Rudolph Gantz and others and is now making piano records for the Duo Art Company of New York City. In an interview this morning Dr. Thomas, who returned Saturday from an extended trip in the east, told of his playing for the Aeolian Company in New York and of their acceptance of his work. In November or December he will return to that city to make six more records for the company, two of which will probably be of his own composition.

The records which Dr. Thomas made in New York on July 3 are of "Arabesque" by Theodore Leschetzki and "Valse" by August Noelle, a modern German composer.

Dr. Thomas received a letter today from J. W. Jenkins in Kansas City in which he was informed that Mr. Jenkins had been notified of his making the records by the Aeolian company and that the company had suggested that the Jenkins company bring a Duo Art piano to Maryville for a tone test.

In speaking of the matter today, Dr. Thomas said, "It might be interesting to know that I was sandwiched in between two great pianists, Harold Bauer making two records immediately after I finished. Others than Bauer of repute who make records for the Duo Art are Paderewski, Josef Hofmann, Rudolph Gantz, Ossip Gabrilowitch, Percy Grainger, and Rachmaninoff."

Dr. Thomas has been doing piano work since he was 9 years old. He received his first training at Tarkio College in Tarkio and later studied under Dr. Hugh A. Clarke, head of the music department at the University of Pennsylvania, and George Shortland Kempton, first prize man at Leipzig.

He has the distinction of being the only Missourian other than Rudolph Gantz, director of the St. Louis Symphony orchestra, to make records for the Duo Art.

In speaking of the manner in which a reproduction of playing is made by the Duo Art, Dr. Thomas said that the musician is closeted in a room with a large piano, to which are attached innumerable electric wires. At a given signal the current is turned on and all of the movements of the pianist are recorded, even to his pedaling.

In case there is a tone test of Dr. Thomas' records in Maryville it will be necessary to import a Duo Art from Kansas City as there is none in this city.

Mr. Rowley says that he has about 100 head of cabbages in his patch and some of them may be bigger than the one he has on display at the bank.

To prove his sincerity as a challenger, Mr. Rowley agrees to vote the Democratic ticket from top to bottom this fall if anyone will bring into the bank within the next few days, a larger head of cabbage than he can produce. Now is the time for some good man to come to the aid of his party.

The flyers did not make a landing at the field immediately but went on toward Paris where they circled above the Arc of Triumph as a token of homage to France's unknown soldier. This courtesy completed, Lieutenant Smith headed the procession back to the field where the landing was made.

COMPELS SINCLAIR TO GIVE TESTIMONY

PROBING BODY GIVEN RIGHT
BY RULING.

DEMURRER OVERRULED

Attorneys For Oil King Challenge
Right of Investigation Committee
To Question Private Citizens.

Washington, July 14.—An investigating committee of Congress has the right to compel a private citizen to appear before it and testify concerning matters relative to the investigation, it was held in effect today by the District of Columbia Supreme Court in overruling a demurrer filed by Harry F. Sinclair.

Sinclair recently was indicted for contempt of the United States Senate for refusing to testify. His attorneys filed a demurrer attacking the indictment on the grounds the Senate was without authority to compel him to testify.

The ruling today in effect sustains the right of the Senate committee to interrogate Sinclair but while upholding the committee, it gives Sinclair the right to decline to answer questions not directly pertaining to the subject under investigation.

The court held the oil king was not required to answer questions relating to the 75,000 shares of stock alleged to have been contributed to the Republican national committee for an alleged transfer of $100,000 between two New York banks.

Less School Children This Year Than Last

According To School Enumeration
Figures Filed With County Clerk—
More Girls Than Boys.

The school enumeration for 1924 in this county has dropped fifty-four from the 1923 school enumeration, according to the records filed in the county clerk's office, Fred Wright, deputy clerk, said this morning.

In all the 132 districts in Nodaway County there are 7,319 children of school age. Last year there were 7,373. Of the total number of 7,319 between the ages of 6 and 20 years, 3,651 are boys and 3,668 are girls, according to the enumeration figures.

There is only one school district in the county where colored children were noted by the school enumerators; Maryville Independent, district 97, in which nine boys and 10 girls of school age were recorded.

Mr. Wright said that there are thirty-seven school districts in the county that have less than twenty children of school age; forty-one districts that have twenty and less than thirty; thirty-three districts that have thirty and less than fifty of school age; four districts that have fifty and less than eighty; and seventeen districts that have more than eighty children of school age.

Specialist to Talk
on Home Decorating

Mrs. Van Deusen Will Be With Party From Extension Service on Three Clover Days.

In her talk and demonstration on home furnishings, which will be part of the Clover and Prosperity Day program, at Conception Abbey, Conception, August 4, the College Park at Maryville, August 5, and at the school grounds in Elmo, August 6, Mrs. Van Deusen from the Missouri College of Agriculture will tell how the walls of the home may be made restful and attractive at no great cost.

The keynote of her talk will be that not all cheap things are bad nor are all expensive things good. A very humble room may have the quality of restfulness which is lacking in the one where the cost was not limited.

There are several satisfactory finishes for walls. The rough plaster may be tinted before being applied or it may be painted. It may be calcimined, which is very cheap and not very durable treatment. The use of wall paper is more artistic and in the long run quite economical.

The walls should increase or tone down the light and should be good background for the pictures, furniture and the people. A small pattern or stripe, while not quite so good as a background, is more serviceable because it does not show soil or abrasions so easily.

It is usually better to carry the same color on the walls of the rooms that open into each other so that when the doors are open a more pleasing effect is obtained than when a break in color occurs.

The walls of the kitchen should be treated so that dust and dirt are easily removed. Plaster may be given a slick steam-proof varnish or paint, or wall paper with a glazed surface may be used. The walls should suggest cleanliness and the colors used, while they may be light and pleasant, should never be very bright.

Ak-sar-ben Is Booster
Nebraska Organization

Musical Comedy Is Presented by Omaha Talent Every Monday Night "Cornhusker's Nightmare"

Is Produced.

Omaha, Neb., July 14.—Omaha presents every Monday night, a musical comedy unique in the annals of theatrical entertainment. It is called "Ak-sar-ben," (Nebraska spelled backwards,) and is given by the Knights of Ak-sar-ben, an organization of public spirited professional and business men of Omaha, pledged to advertise their city to the Middle West and to the world in general.

The "den" of Ak-sar-ben on the outskirts of South Omaha houses the play. The cast is made up of local male talent, assisted by visitors to Omaha who are "initiated" into the mysteries of the organization preceding and during the performance, at the same time providing additional comedy for the audience, who have already passed through the experience. Harmless horseplay gives the neophyte plenty to think about.

"A Cornhusker's Nightmare," is the title given the play presented this season. It is a burlesque on the glowing tales of boundless wealth and opportunities expended by real estate speculators of "Bullifornia" in luring "suckers" to the "land of oranges and everlasting sunshine," from the deep snows and cold of their Nebraska homes. The Cornhusker succumbs and goes to Hokum, Bullifornia, where he is royally welcomed by realtors, oil men and politicians. They soon part him from all his money, and he awakens in his Nebraska home to discover it is all a nightmare.

A party of journalism students from the University of Missouri, as guests of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, were initiated by the Knights of Ak-sar-ben last Monday night. Professor R. S. Mann, in charge of the students, was called upon to address the audience after the performance. He complimented the Knights upon the altruistic purpose of the show, and concluded his talk by explaining the purpose of the journalism field trip this year.

The Knights of Ak-sar-ben are celebrating their thirtieth anniversary this year.

101 Cents Worth of Gasoline in Your 1923 Dollar

As compared with the 1913 dollar, the dollar of 1923 bought 101 cents worth of gasoline, while it bought only 51.8 cents worth of clothing, 60 cents worth of shoes, 61.2 cents worth of rent, 68.5 cents worth of food, 45 cents worth of frame building, 53.4 cents worth of furniture and house furnishings, 46.3 cents worth of brick building, or 73.5 cents worth of farm crops. (National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.)

Gasoline is more than low in price. It is lower in price than almost any other essential commodity in general use.

This state of affairs has not "just happened." The fact that the 1923 dollar will buy more gasoline than the 1913 dollar could purchase is due largely to intelligent work and efficient organization by the leaders of the petroleum industry in general, and, so far as the Middle West is concerned, to the efficiency of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

In a recent interview, President Coolidge stated that "It was right for men to organize, and the ends of society were best served by organization, provided the organization was for service."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is emphatically an organization for service. From the very acquisition of the crude oil, to the last drop of gasoline run into your tank at a Standard Oil Company (Indiana) filling station, every thought, effort and act of this Company is bent toward giving the best service to the consumer.

This "best" service necessarily includes a low price. And the price of gasoline made by this Company has been perennially low, (both absolutely, and in comparison with other commodities) over a long period of time.

But price is only one angle of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) service. It is the comprehensive facilities provided by this Company, embracing a complete cycle of service, which increases the purchasing power of your 1923 gasoline dollar over and above the 1913 gasoline dollar.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has anticipated automotive development. It has created great, modern refineries. It has trained a loyal and efficient body of employees. It has erected great storage depots to hold reserves of gasoline during the off-season against the period of rush demand. It has built an almost endless chain of service stations.

As a result, today you are able to fill up your gasoline tank at will, anywhere and everywhere, with uniformly dependable gasoline of high quality, at prices persistently and consistently low.

Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State, has been unanimously elected President of the American Bar Association in session in Philadelphia. A. B. Houghton, American Ambassador to Germany, who returned to Washington for a conference with President Coolidge, has been obliged to hasten back to Berlin because of chaotic conditions there. Mrs. Archibald B. Gwathmey, whose multi-millionaire husband, the New York and Texas cotton king, recently secured a divorce in Texas entered suit against him in New York, declaring the Texas decree void and naming Mrs. Betsy Judd as co-respondent. The New York courts denied her plea, finding that Mr. Gwathmey's confessed love for Mrs. Judd was purely platonic. Now it is revealed that Gwathmey and Mrs. Judd were secretly married on July 4.

Predict Corn Over a Dollar This Fall

Dispatches From Washington From Government Bureau Estimate the Poorest Crop in Years.

Farmers in this locality are predicting corn at $1.50 a bushel this fall. This is according to statements made at one of the poultry dealers in Maryville just recently. The reason for the increase in the price of corn is mainly the shortage that is now being predicted by some.

Clarence Vogt, local produce dealer, said this morning that the Quaker Oats Co. is forecasting that corn will sell at least $1.25 a bushel at the terminals. This will make the price of corn at the elevators at about $1.10.

Dispatches from the Government Bureau at Washington disclose the poorest crop in years, estimating the corn about 500,000,000 bushels short of last year. This sent the prices of futures well above the $1 mark. The higher prices at Kansas City failed to increase the receipts however. The government reports estimate the crop at 2,515,000,000.

Battling Fires in Santa Barbara Forest

Two Trains of Workers Rush to Scene of Blazes—Situation Favorable in Northern California.

San Francisco, July 14—Two trains of fire fighters, after an all-night journey into the mountains, started battling in a new sector today to stop the advance of the great Santa Barbara national forest fires in southern California, which threatens to cut the main automobile road from northern to southern California, known as the "ridge route."

The flames spread in this direction after they had apparently been checked by the hundreds of men fighting the blaze in the vicinity of Fiske Canyon. In northern California, although several fires were burning, with two beyond control, the situation generally was considered more favorable.

CHATEAU THIERRY CHURCH DEDICATED

IS ERECTED BY GIFTS FROM AMERICANS.

COST 1,000,000 FRANCS

Designed By Paul Cret—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Gives Bible in Honor of Quentin.

Washington, July 14.—Many Americans gathered at Chateau Thierry yesterday to take part in the dedication of the Chateau Thierry Memorial Church erected by gifts from America. Nearly every part of the church and its fixtures have been given as a memorial by the families of men who lost their lives in the World War.

Among them is the lectern Bible given by Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Sr. in memory of Quentin Roosevelt, who was shot down by a German Airplane in the summer of 1918. She has written an inscription of her own for the inside cover of the Bible to be read when the church is dedicated.

The church itself has been given by the Reformed Church in the United States as a memorial to the five hundred men of that communion who lost their lives in the war. It is a part of the whole program of aid to the French Churches that has been carried on under the general auspices of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The dedication has been arranged so that it would fit in with the tour of Europe by the Huguenot pilgrims from the United States. Many of the pilgrims will take part in the service, others visiting the places whence their ancestors came to settle in America two or three hundred years ago. The pilgrimage is part of the Huguenot-Walloon-New Netherland Tercentenary celebration.

The National Service Commission of the Reformed Church had a balance when the armistice was signed. From it was purchased a plot of ground in the town square for $11,000. All the buildings on it were wrecked by German bombs. The Castle is on the adjoining lot on the top of the hill back

The church has cost about 1,000,000 francs. It was designed by Paul Cret, professor of Architecture at the University of Pennsylvania. Practically all the furniture has been given as individual memorials by members of the Reformed Church, though a few members of other churches have been allowed to participate.

The lectern upon which the Roosevelt Bible will rest has been given by the First Reformed Church of Lancaster, Pennsylvania. It is in the form of an angel carved in wood by Alois Lang. The pulpit is a joint memorial of the 22 chaplains of the United States Army who lost their lives in the war.

The Mercersburg Academy has given the bell in memory of the men of that institution who lost their lives. Memorials were also given by Franklin and Marshall College, Franklin and Marshall Academy, the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church at Lancaster, Ursinus College, Heidelberg University, the Theological Seminary at Dayton, Ohio, and other schools.

The Rev. Gabriel Vernier, the pastor of the Chateau Thierry Reformed Church, has visited the United States and is well known. The Rev. Dr. W. Stuart Cramer, executive secretary of the commission that erected the church, has been sent by his congregation in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, to dedicate it. He carried messages from President Coolidge, General Pershing, Chief of Chaplains of the Army John T. Axten and others, and a memorial silk flag from the city of Lancaster.

Mrs. Fred Winnell and daughter, Helen, of Wilcox were guests yesterday at the home of Mrs. Winnell's mother, Mrs. M. P. Gingrich of Maryville.

Principles Plus Courage

JUDGE HENRY S. PRIEST, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, makes his appeal to those who can THINK, not to those who merely are able, once in the while, to readjust their prejudices.

To begin with, Judge Priest is not an office seeker, in the ordinary sense of the word. Therefore, he is not seeking the office of Governor for the office itself. He aspires to that honor as a great honor, because he is tremendously interested in the principles on which he is making his campaign.

It is a matter of principle with Judge Priest that he favors upholding the Constitution in its original purity. If this bulwark of our freedom should fail, our government would fall with it.

It is because of principle that Judge Priest favors State's rights. The Constitution of the United States inveighs against the usurpation of the rights of Missouri and every other state by the centralization of government in Washington.

It is because of principle that Judge Priest favors less government and more justice for the farmers of Missouri, and principle impels him to a clarion call for efficiency, economy and honesty in the administration of the State's affairs.

Principle, too, bottoms Judge Priest's opposition to the Eighteenth Amendment and the Ku Klux Klan, because they substitute force for reason and attack the liberty guaranteed to you by your forefathers.

THINK! Judge Priest is appealing to YOU.

Henry Samuel Priest is a native of Ralls County, Mo., and was educated at Westminster College, Fulton, Mo. He is now, and for many years has been, an active communicant of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Union Avenue, St. Louis. Judge Priest was appointed to the Federal bench by that immortal Democrat, Grover Cleveland, at the behest of the late Senator Vest. Judge Priest's political and legal Godfather and the grandfather of George G. Vest, who is active in the management of Judge Priest's campaign for Governor.

Judge Priest is the Candidate Courageous!

IN FINALS.

IS LEADING CONTENDER

First Prize of $1,000 Is Given to Cleveland, Ohio Man—Gold Medals to Fourteen.

It is announced that Harry A. Miller of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College stood through the contest until the finals and was among the leading contestants in the decisive ballot.

With several hundred thousand from every state in the Union, the first award of $1,000 is given to Edward W. Young of Cleveland, Ohio.

This is the first public service contest ever conducted over the radio, simultaneously reaching every part of the nation and many foreign countries, with immediate replies from Norway and South Africa, flashed through the air waves.

The judges rendering the decision are: Hon. James J. Davis, of Washington, Secretary of Labor; Hon. Martin Vogel, of Washington and New York, former Assistant Treasurer of the United States; Hon. T. V. O'Connor of Washington, Chairman of Shipping Board; Mr. Samuel Hastings of Chicago, former President Illinois Manufacturers Association; Judge Ben B. Lindsay of Colorado, judge of Juvenile Court of Denver; Mr. Franklin Simon of New York, President of Franklin Simon & Co.; Dr. Frank M. Clendinning of New York, Rector and distinguished author.

The judges announce gold awards to the following contestants: Hector Fuller, of New York; Harry Walker Hepner, Syracuse, N. Y.; Mrs. Frances Teepell, Dubuque, Ia.; J. L. R. Howell, Leighton, Ala.; Mrs. Almedia B. Waltz, Kokomo, Ind.; Nan Terrell Reed, Westville, New Haven, Conn.; Miss C. M. Doris, Philadelphia, Pa.

The National Contest was inaugurated as a memorial to Dr. Orison Sweet Marden, founder of Success magazine. More than 80 per cent of the contestants give "service" as the chief factor in success. Money stands far down in twenty-fifth position while material prosperity is at the bottom of the list.

The awards will be made tomorrow, July 15, by Walter Hoff Seely, chairman of the committee and editor of Success, with appropriate ceremonies at Cleveland, Ohio.

The Birth of a Third Party

Late Telegraph News

McPherson, Kan., July 14.—An old game was revived in this district this week, with two traveling men playing the role of "suckers."

The two traveling men, and another man, described as young, well dressed and to all appearances an easterner, were sole occupants of the smoking compartment on a mixed passenger train.

The conversation drifted to the late democratic convention, and ultimately to Mr. Volstead. The discussion revealed that neither of the three men were in favor of Volstead's restrictions. With this information at hand, the young man, casually remarked he had a few quarts of "cold tea" in his grip, and would sell two of them for just what they cost. He seemed sorry for the westerners who could get nothing but "rotten bootleg stuff," he said.

The deal was consummated, the price being $8 per quart for two.

"But I would rather you wouldn't open it until I get off the train as the officers in this state, I understand are rather belligerent towards the 'wet hip,' he remarked.

Of course they would respect his wishes, so long as he was so accommodating.

The young fellow got off, the traveling men lost no time in opening their new purchase.

A close or rather casual investigation showed the young man had not lied about the "cold tea," for it really was rather cool, and tea, just as pure as the wives of the traveling men could make for much less than $8 a quart.

Enid, Okla., July 14.—Theological institutions and churches are entitled to the kind of theology for which they pay, and when instructors in the employ of these institutions discover they have lost faith in the narrative of Christ's supernatural origin, the verbal inspiration of the Bible and other theological questions now in controversy, they should surrender their positions and mount the soap box. Such were the positions taken by C. C. Taylor, members of the faculty of Phillips university in an address here.

"People have a right to the kind of teaching for which they pay," he explained. "And when ministers or professors find they are at variance with the orthodox belief they should secure positions in an atmosphere where they will be appreciated. The trouble is that dissenters get into clerical and professional positions, the begin delivering a brand of goods much different from the kind for which they are supposed to receive their pay checks."

Prices of All Grains

Expected to Advance

Already are Around the Highest of the Season; Cause Better Feeling.

Chicago, Ill., July 14.—World's wheat and rye conditions are the most bullish in recent years and corn conditions in the United States are most favorable to maintenance of a high level of values in recent years. Prices of all grains are around the highest of the season and are expected to advance. Those who have tried to check upward movement in wheat prices have met with only temporary success.

Advance prices for all grains have a two-fold interest. They help the farmer and the business and financial conditions. They create a better feeling all around and buying cheer where recently gloom existed.

From the low point of the season wheat futures are up 15 3-8 to 16 7-8c, corn for July is up 37 1/2c, September 26 7-8c, and December 21 5-8c. Oats are 9 3-8 to 10c higher for the distant futures and 13 5-8c above the low point of the season for July, while rye has advanced 13 to 15 3-4c from the season's low point. Most of this advance has been in about thirty days.

Lard at Highest Price.

Lard is at the highest price of the season with an advance of around 1 1/2c a pound. Short ribs are up 75c to 90c.

Foreigners have bought wheat in Chicago and Winnipeg in liberal volume of late, absorbing the hedges against the new southwestern winter wheat crop and advancing prices. Millers have bought new wheat in the southwest and export business has improved. There is a natural bull market on in wheat and all grains, the first in recent years, and comparatively few traders who have come into the grain markets within the last few years have ever experienced a market like the present, and do not understand it.

Eyes of the world's wheat markets are fixed upon the outcome of the Canadian wheat crop which is regarded as the price making factor for some months to come and possibly for the entire season. Present indications are for a crop of 100 millions and possibly 125 millions bushels or more under last year's.

July wheat closed Saturday at $1.18 3-4, September at $1.17 1/2 to $1.18 5-8, December $1.21 to $1.21 3-8 and May $1.25 5-8.

Corn Yield Short.

Although the government report gives the condition of corn 72, the lowest on record, and suggests a yield of 2,515,000,000 bushels of 531 million bushels short of last year and 374 million bushels below the average, there has been an improvement in conditions in many sections in the last two weeks and old corn traders express the opinion that the poorest condition of the season has been shown in the July returns. Based on the belief that nature's recuperative power will largely make up for lateness of the season at the end, they assert that final returns will show more corn than the July estimates.

Scarcity of old corn at terminal markets, combined with light receipts have placed shorts and consumers in a position where they have been forced to bid up prices sharply to bring out the offerings of July and cash grain from holders and the July was rushed up by shorts to 108 1/2 and No. 2 yellow to $1.13, the latter being only 1 cent under last year's high mark. September, which may be a case of getting out of the frying pan and into the fire unless there is a decided increase in marketing after farmers harvest their small grains.

Old Oats Scarce.

July corn closed Saturday at $1.07 1/2 to $1.07 3-4; September at $1.01 to $1.00 7-8; December at 85 3-4 to 85 5-8; May at 88 1-8c.

Old oats are scarce and leading holders have disposed of practically all they took in on May delivery, having only a few at eastern lake ports. New crop prospects are generally good, but oats prices are so low, as compared with corn, that consumption is increasing and with stocks of old low and harvest late there is little pressure for the present. Speculative buying has increased which, with the advance in corn, has created a better market.

July closed Saturday at 54 5-8c; September, 46 3-8c; December, 48c, and May, 49 7-8c.

Rye average in countries which produce 99 per cent of the world's crop is 8 per cent short of last year and the production 18 per cent below last year as given by the agricultural department. Poland and Germany's rye crop is heavily short, but Poland has a fairly good crop of wheat. Foreigners have bought cash and rye futures freely. The United States crop is 2 million bushels more than last year.

July rye closed Saturday at $1.14c; September at $1.35c, and December at 84 1/2c.

Good, Blues' Manager, Resigns; Ask Waivers

John Lavan to Succeed Mr. Good—No Reason for His Action—Effective Immediately.

Kansas City, July 14.—Willard Good, manager of the Kansas City American Association baseball team, resigned last night and George Muehlbach, owner of the club, immediately announced the appointment of John Lavan to succeed Good.

Waivers will be asked on Good, President Muehlbach said.

No reason for the sudden change in managers was given by Mr. Muehlbach but the poor showing of the team recently is believed to have influenced the retirement of Good.

Lavan came to Kansas City this afternoon from the St. Louis Nationals. He is a shortstop. The new manager is 34 years old, but is a veteran in the game. Heretofore he has never had any experience as a manager.

After an auspicious start this season, the team slumped. Ending a disastrous road trip the Blues returned home and dropped five straight games, including a double-header yesterday.

Sons of Vice President Work as Day Laborers

John and James Davidson Learn Electrical Profession From Ground Up as Did Father

Omaha, Neb., July 14.—Sunday with its sweltering heat meant nothing to two tall, slender youths in grimy overalls as they worked on one of the large turbines in the Nebraska's Power Company's plant here. The holiday with the thermometer registering more than ninety degrees and beckoning thousands of pleasure-seekers to the beaches and parks, was forgotten by these grease-smeared sons of toil, as they boyishly laughed and joked with the older men about them, unmindful of their perspiration-soaked jumpers.

They were John and James Davidson, sons of J. E. Davidson, vice-president and general manager of the Nebraska Power Company, and first vice-president of the National Electric Light Association.

James, 17, finished Culver Military Academy last month and will enter Cornell University this fall to study electrical engineering. John, 15, is a sophomore in Central high school at Omaha. Both are members of the swimming team of the Omaha Athletic Club. Jim starred in football this year.

The boys are learning the business from the ground up. "I want them to start at the bottom—that's the way I learned the business," says Mr. Davidson.

"Great stuff," the boys smile. "Keeps us out of mischief and gives us something to do."

No special privileges are given the boys. They "hit the clock" as do the other laborers at the plant. Every other week these youngsters get Sunday-off. "It's good for us and we'll be back on the job again next summer," said Jim as he wiped his grim-covered hands on an oil-soaked piece of machinery's waste.

INTO THIRD ROUND OF TOURNAMENTS

MATCHES IN HORSESHOES WELL UNDER WAY.

TENNIS ALMOST OVER

Complete Second Round Today:— Bad Condition of Courts, Caused By Rain, A Handicap.

With the exception of two matches in singles both of the horseshoe tournaments at the State Teachers College have gone through the third round. Out of the thirty-two teams in doubles but seven remain. One team, that of McPike and Jenkins, has gone to the semi-final round without playing a match, all of its opponents having forfeited.

The results of the matches in the third round follow:

Carroll and Barnes defeated Adair and McClain, 21-19; Findley and Wallin won from Miller and McPherron, 21-14; Johnson and Greever won their way to this round by a forfeit; and Mock and Skelton are in the semi-finals by virtue of a forfeit.

In horseshoe singles Smith is in the semi-finals by virtue of his victory over Barnes, 21-3.

In the third round Masters won from Williams, 21-12; McPike from Rowland, 21-13; McClure from Daniels, 21-20; and Walton gained a victory by a forfeit. Forty-five players were entered in this tourney.

The final match in tennis doubles in the second round is being played this afternoon between Webb and Mapel and the Gusewelle brothers. The semi-final and final rounds will be completed this week.

Play has been handicapped in the tennis tourneys by the bad condition of the courts. Coach Lawrence has been working on them at every available moment but the bad weather has undone his work almost as soon as it has been completed.
